

There is No Substitute for American Freedom and Exceptionalism

Canadian Pastor Artur Pawlowski was arrested upon arrival to Canada and was charged criminally for officiating a Church Service in June and for not wearing a mask outside in March of 2021. The trial for the charges is scheduled for this October 13.

For the two criminal charges regarding the latest arrest, he could be sentenced up to 2 years in prison. That same day Pastor Pawlowski will be sentenced for the two previous offences, from April and May of 2021. The charges are "Inciting people to come to Church," "Officiating a Church Service" and "Participating in an Illegal Gathering (Church Service)" contrary to two judges orders prohibiting Church Gatherings. Pawlowski could be sentenced up to 4 years in prison, if the "judge/political activist" wants to throw the book at him plus a large monetary fine.

Pastor Artur Pawlowski runs a ministry, called Street Church that is now on several continents and in over 40 cities, feeding hundreds of thousands of people a week. In the city of Calgary, Canada, Pastor Pawlowski with his volunteers, feed thousands of homeless people on the streets of his city. Pawlowski also pastors in a building where he refused to shut down his church.
