

There is No Substitute for American Freedom and Exceptionalism

November 14, 2021

Yesterday when introducing a guest at the Reawaken America Tour in San Antonio, Texas, General Flynn spoke passionately about our freedom to worship here in the United States, and the left pounced on an off the cuff remark he made when he was talking about how we need to unify under God.

I asked him about it given that people have taken the opportunity to pile on, and he said this:

“My message is and has always been when I discuss religious persecution that our nation was built upon a Judeo-Christian set of values and principles. We were founded by people seeking to practice their religion freely and without harm from their government. God is under attack today by the left. In this country we should be able to worship however we want, to whomever we want, and we should not be persecuted for our faith - a faith that is under attack by the left every single day.”

It's not surprising then, that they only use a discussion about faith when it suits them, and not when Americans stand to exercise that freedom in the form of religious accommodation from vaccination, or to worship freely under COVID restriction.

General Flynn is a patriot and a man of God. If only some “pundits” scrutinized the tyrants statements as much as his... Biden can get away with overt racism, but General Flynn can't talk about the persecution of our faith.

The hypocrisy is amazing.
